New View: A Curated Visual Gallery Twenty Magnificent Homes by Northeast Architects

New York, NY. October 2023.

The Northeastern U.S. is the latest region catalogued in the historic New View series of residential architecture.

New View: A Curated Visual Gallery – Twenty Magnificent Homes by Northeast Architects succeeds a memorable and elegant Florida edition, and follows the curatorial acclaim of best-selling design book, Modish: The Book of Great Design, by Beth Buckley of culture and publishing house benton buckley books.

Set for retail release on November 30, the second tome of New View transports the reader to and across New England, traversing the rocky coast of classic summer colonies, floating across the glamorous Manhattan skyline, and finding tranquil refuge in the charming mountain towns of Vermont. Immersive photography and exquisite design invite and welcome the reader into the 20 magnificent homes exhibited amongst the 344 pages of the hardcover collection.

Structural, sumptuous, and able to breathe into the perfect frame of white space, the artful curation is a true portrait of the ecology and aesthetic of beauty, environment, and home.

Romantic editorial and gorgeous imagery gently persuade the reader that we are indeed shaped by the structures we choose to inhabit. As Chad Oppenheim reminds in his foreword to the Florida volume: “Residential architecture tells the story of where we are as a civilization.”

Curator Beth Buckley shares that hardcover collections on Texas and California are forthcoming, and that Dubai, Australia, and other regionally distinctive US editions will debut shortly thereafter. The complete series promises to be the premier capsule anthology of home.

New View: Northeast features a Foreword by Anne Decker, Introduction by Brian Mac, and the talents of Morris Adjmi, Ed Barnhart, Bruce Beinfeld, Thomas Catalano, Anne Decker, Stuart Disston, Mario Egozi, Allison Ewing, Marcus Gleysteen, Gale Goff, Robert Gurney, Pierre-Henri Hoppenot, Caleb Johnson, Sussan Lari, Brian Mac, Brian Mann, Nick Martin, Joshua Rosensweig & Stuart Disston, Peter Paulos, Travis Price, and Joseph Vance.

New View: A Curated Visual Gallery – Twenty Magnificent Homes by Northeast Architects will be available on bentonbuckleybooks.com, as well through online and retail bookstores on November 30. It is currently in pre-order status.
